SUBJECT.

In re certain complaints against Mr Narayana Swamy Modaliar. Dy Amildar of French Rocks Sub Taluk.

From

No.	Dated
		One Narasimha Char of Melkote has addressed a petition to this office alleging certain irregularities by the Dy. Amildar of French Rocks Sub Taluk in the discharge of official duties. The petitioner states as follows:— 1) on the 24th Dec. 1904, when the Muzrai Secretary was out on tour and had halted at Melkote, the Dy Amildar held a Municipal meeting and though certain ~~Govt. officials, who are ex~~ members, were absent from Head Quarters ~~on duty~~. Their names were recorded as having attended the meeting and the business thereof was conducted in the manner he pleased

2) On the 3rd January 1905, one Vyd Sara Ven Kataramana Setty of Melkote presented Rs 200/- before the Dy Amildar with the object of investing the Amount in the Savings Bank for conducting certain services in a Temple. The Dy Amildar made a private use of the public money and after a delay of one month, remitted it to the Sreerangapatam Taluk Dy for getting it credited in the Savings Bank, thereby rendering the depositor a loss of interest.

3) On the 18th January last, a Sum of Rs 100/- payable to the Veda Vedanta Bodhini Pathasala, was remitted from the Sreerangapatam Taluk Treasury, and though the amount was received and credited on the 19th Jany in the French Rocks Sub Taluk Treasury, it was not disbursed to the Pathasala for a long time. When the Dy Amildar was called upon to explain for the delay, by the Higher Authorities, he made a false report that the amount was not credited in the Treasury as soon as it was received.

He further states that if the records are sent for and examined, the

One Bhadra Setty of Srirangapatam petitioned this office stating that he was the Contractor of the Melkote Temple for a long time; that the 25.th of the month was the date usually fixed for accepting the tenders to supply provisions required in the Temple in the Succeeding month; that notices thereof were distributed by the Dy. Amildar some 8 days previously inviting tenders; that when he went on some private business to Hirode on the 16 th inst, he was informed that the Contract affair had come to a close on the 13 th; Contrary to manool, thereby affording him no opportunity to be present & to bid at the time of Sale.

He prays that he is.
